Republican opposition should become pronounced in the Assembly to the repeal of the Miller traction legislation, Governor-elect Smith's friends expect him to work it out on a basis of compromise and co-operation with the Republicans on measures in which they are particularly interested. Those who

2,000 Inspect the Aconcagua;

Officials of the South American Steamship Company entertained about 2,000 guests, including shipping men and their friends, at a reception yesterday on board the scompany's new vessel, the Aconcagua, at her pier, foot of Montague Street, Brooklyn.

Not since 1910, when John A. Dix was elected Governor and the Democrats captured both branches of the Commissioners Harkness and O'Ryan have pointed out. The adoption of the Hylan plan will mean the holding up of all subway building for at least a five-year period, during which time the already overcrowded transit lines will be called on to carry even greater loads, to the increasing discomfort and inconvenience of passengers. And when finally completed the new line will increase the number of double fare must be paid five or six, which would have been established under the commission's plan of having the crosstown lines tie in with one of the existing routes, will be lost to the traveling public and a double fare must be paid by every one who finds it necessary to change from the proposed line to not the proposed line to the proposed line to not the proposed line to not having the proposed line to not have proposed to the traveling proposed line to not have a free hand.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Brigadier eneral Slayden, commandant of the fillitary Academy at West Point, has een directed by Secretary Weeks to ceall an invitation given to the Honorh William Fortescue, president of the Royal Historical Society, to address the cadets on Armistice Day.

A formal statement issued to-day by one war Secretary said the reason for its action was found in statements ontained in a recent book written by ortescue, entitled "British Statesment the Great War." The Secretary unted this passage:

"Americans esteem a good bargain, on mark the highest form of sbility, he United States cannot engage in my form of competition with us, from thleties to diplomacy, without using oul play. They must win, if not by air skill, then by prearranged trickery large in the Supreme Court in Whites Former Supreme Court Justice Isaac N. Mills, counsel for Walter S. Waro, announced yesterday that he would appear in the Supreme Court in Whites Plains Monday to move for the fillent with the murder of Clarence Peters last May if he is unable to have the case brought to an immediate trial. The prosecutor should be man enough to say that he has not enough evidence to go ahead if that is the case.

"I would prefer a jury trial and an acquittal, but if I cannot get the trial for Mr. Ward to which he is entitled after this long delay it is my duty to bring about a dismissal of the charge, if possible."

District Attorney Weeks was non-committal when he was told of Justice Mills's announcement and asked if he would oppose a motion for dismissal. "I think the matter will be adjourned." was his only reply, and this he refused to apply any skill, then by prearranged trickery
